It has been so long since we have had any navy worth speaking of that there is no very great occasion for alarm at the announcement by Secretary Chandler that the money for naval purposes has run out. There is so very little of the navy that Chandler might pay its expenses out of his own pocket until an appropriation can be made.

The French are going to overtop the Washington Monument in the erection of an iron tower 984 feet high in the ground of the Paris Exposition. It is proposed to divide the interior into rooms for scientific and other purposes, and to utilize this grand commemorative monument not only for strategical purposes in war time but for meteorological and astronomical observations, for which the clearness of the air and the absence of fog at its summit would render it well adapted.

A very superior cloth woven into shirts and stockings from the fibres of American nettles—a raw material cheaper and tougher than any known—is one of the latest Yankee inventions, and is said to be an excellent substitute for Chinese serpenter made of ramie. The fibre of nettles costs but a third of the average price of wool, and its strength admits of its being mixed with wool in equal proportions in the ordinary process of manufacture. The material thus made combines the warmth of wool with the toughness of the other raw material. It can be mixed with "shoddy," a short staple of artificial wool, and the admixture of the longer staple of the nettle with the "shoddy" makes a very cheap and durable cloth. The fibre can be produced at the rate of about 18 cents per pound, while wool in a natural state costs about 50. The nettles grow in prodigious quantity all through the Jersey swamps.

The Philadelphia Times states that a movement in the direction of cheap theatricals was made in New York last week by a half dozen managers of that city, who formed a combination to produce pleasing dramatic attractions in all parts of the country at cheap prices of admission. In each city from five to ten weeks' time will be booked and it will be filled by dramatic, operatic or spectacular combinations controlled by the syndicate. The general prices of admission will be 10, 15 and 25 cents. An additional 10 cents will be charged for a reserved seat. It is said that time has already been booked in Baltimore, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Cleveland, Buffalo, Wilmington, Del., Rochester, Syracuse and other cities. The syndicate will simply rent the houses and give two performances a day, and it is represented that a number of combinations of good repute have already indicated their willingness to play under the new arrangement for certainities. The success of the drame museums throughout the country, of which more than one hundred are now in successful operation, is given as one of the reasons for the proposed new departure.

The Sea Sings Its Requiem Over the Remains of Col. Brewster.

Galveston, Tex., Jan. 2.—The remains of Col. H. Perry Brewster, late State Commissioner of Insurance, Arrived from Austin and were buried at sea, in accordance with the wishes of the deceased.

Colonel Brewster served in the San Jacinto war, was First Adjutant General of Texas, and served as Chief of Staff under General Albert Sydney Johnston in the late war. Deceased passed his life on land, but was strongly infatuated with a desire to be buried at sea. His wish was made known by his peculiar desire in this respect to his bosom friend, General John M. Claiborne, and Colonel Jack, while lying together under a tree, just before the opening engagement of the battle of Shiloh. Afterwards, during the progress of the war, he frequently repeated the request to several army friends, and said he desired to be buried in sixty fathoms of water at high meridian. His theory was that at that particular depth the pressure of water was of just sufficient density to keep a human body quietly upon the bottom. Prior to his death the city of Austin, Texas, lay Judge Brewster repeated to his daughter his last wishes regarding the disposition of his body.
Miss Brewster communicated with General Claiborne and other friends of this city, and it was determined to carry out the last request of her father, and friends of Governor Reed, please the little State Senator Huyler at the disposal of Miss Brewster, for the purpose of carrying the body to sea. The remains, under a military escort, were placed aboard the steamer "Huyler," and the last solemn travel to the sea began. The locality selected for the burial was the place some nine years ago, the steamer "Huyler" was burned with loss of life. Many old army friends of the deceased accompanied the remains. Miss Brewster, yielding to the entreaties of friends, started forward from the remains of her honored father at the point of embarkation. The sea was very rough, but the little steamer braved the waves under the command of an experienced pilot. Several tug and pilot boats accompanied the funeral cortege. The shipping in the harbor few the day of the funeral.

At exactly 11 o'clock, being well out at sea, General Claiborne briefly recited the history of the life of his friend, and gently consigned the casket to the water, which instantly sank beneath the waves of the angry gulf.

Remains Lost of a Valuable Package.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 2.—There is rumor of the Adams Express Company having lost a money package, containing $48,000, while the same was in transit from the office in this city to the Union Depot. It is further believed that two of the employees have been discharged for complicity in the robbery or loss, as the case may be. Superintendent Zimmerman was in this city in consultation with the police, and it is believed that neither of them would submit to an interview.
Manager Henderson says the missing package contained a large sum of money, but that the package has been misdirected, and does not believe the package has been stolen. He says there will be no discharge, and that there are reasonable grounds to expect that the package will yet turn up. It is impossible to learn the names of the consignees. The whole matter is shrouded in mystery, and it is believed that the package was lost by the hands of the managers of the Adams Express Company.

The Convict Trials.

JEFFERS IN CITY, Mo., Jan. 2.—Sunday afternoon there arrived here two men who registered at the Monroe House as S. O.
Parker, Chicago, Ill., and T. F. Tiller, Louisville, Kentucky. The latter is a brother of Promote Tiller, the Pacific Express robber, now serving a five year sentence in the penitentiary. After eating dinner the two men went out to the prison to see and talk to Tiller. To-day T. F. Tiller visited the Executive Office and was ordered for his brother Governor Crittenden. The latter refused point blank to grant it, and said in effect that when Promote Tiller refused all the money he had stolen, paid the balance of his conviction and divulged the names of his accomplices he would take the question of pardoning him under consideration, but would not otherwise do so.

GEN. GRANT'S WAR RELICS

EFFORTS OF HIS FRIENDS TO SAVE THEM FOR THE OLD HERO.

His Indebtedness to Vanderbilt Said to be Pledged—Last of the Six Nations—Business Weeks of the Past Year.

New York, Jan. 2.—Mr. George W. Childs is here and has had a long conference with General Grant relative to the $100,000 fund which a number of the General's rich friends are raising to clear off his indebtedness to William H. Vanderbilt, by the loan that was swallowed up in the Grant & Ward failure. It is now known that the whole amount necessary to meet the claim of which Mr. Vanderbilt himself voluntarily knocked off $60,000, has already been practically pledged. All that now remains is to arrange matters so that in case the Courts decide that General Grant was a regular partner in the default firm, the others creditors will not be able to levy on the war relic and real estate. It was to effect of this protective measure that Mr. Childs particularly exerted himself.

The committee who have charge of the subscription propose to pay Mr. Vanderbilt $100,000, but instead of giving General Grant a quit claim the subscription will be held by them as a sort of trust fund during General Grant's lifetime. The $200,000 annuity fund that George Jones, of the New York Times, raised is administered in this way and can not be touched by any creditors or any claimants.

General Grant went out of doors yesterday, for the first time in many days. He visited a friend at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, and hobnobbed to his room on crutches. His face looked pale and careworn and he appeared depressed.

LAST OF THE SIX NATIONS.

The Onondago Indians, in annual pow-wow at Syracuse, have abrogated the old form of government by Chief in a long preamble which arraigned the Chief system because it has failed to answer the purpose for which all governments should be established. The constitution and bylaws provide that the new government is to have legislative and judiciary departments, the former to be vested in nine members who shall be termed Chiefs. All officers are to be elected for one year. The executive powers will be vested in a President, and the judiciary power in three peace-makers.

The customs relating to matrimony are abolished, but persons cohabiting are declared man and wife and their children to legitimate.

THE WEEKEND OF '84.

The Mercantile Agency reports that during the past year there were 10,978 failures in the United States, with liabilities aggregating $28,545,477. In the Dominion of Canada, there were 1,327 failures, with liabilities amounting to $19,19,306. In the United States there were 1,754 more failures than in 1883, and in Canada 37 less.

A NEW PHASE OF THE CHASE.

Dr. Carver announces that in two weeks he will attempt to shoot 60,000 balls thrown into the air, using rifle and single bullet, in six days. This is an unprecedented feat of endurance in rifle shooting.

A SUCCESSFUL VENTURE.

Among the large checks that passed the Clearing House was one for $25,039 77, drawn by Joseph Fuller on the American Exchange National Bank, representing the balance of the principal and interest on the original purchase of the World. The price paid for the paper was $16,000. The World paid a cash dividend of $10,000 for 1884.

KELLY STILL HOLDS ON.

Mr. W. H. England says that the negotiations for the purchase of the New York Star are still open.

THE COAL PRODUCTION.

The result of the meeting of the anthracite coal producers was an agreement to fix the production for 1885 at 30,000,000 tons, apportioned as follows: Reading 3,885, Lehigh Valley 1,090, Lackawanna 365, Delaware & Hudson eleven, Pennsylvania Railroad eight, Pennsylvania Coal Company five, and the interests represented by Eric Aitken.

SAVING MAY VENTURE.

It is not unlikely that Signor Savini, the great tragedian, may come to America next season, as negotiations to this end are going forward between Mr. Stearns and Signor Chizzola, acting for Savini.

POURING UP INTO MILLIONS.

The exchanges and financial institutions yesterday were busy figuring up the business of the past year and the result gives statistics most wonderful. The total transactions foot up billions of dollars; yet, immense as the figures are they show for the most part a falling off as compared with 1883. Last year was a great year for liquidation in stocks and all kinds of commodities. It was a year of low prices, and the values of stocks and wheat, corn, sugar, coffee and other articles were the lowest known in years, and wheat is selling at a lower price than ever before known. However great the losses to investors and dealers, the exchange must have resorted to a fair harvest in the way of commissions.

CLARA MORRIS IN A WRECK.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 2.—The west bound train on the Savannah, Florida and Western Railroad collided with an incoming train twelve miles from this city New Year's Eve, causing a serious wreck. Baggage-master Terry and two colored men were seriously injured. The Clara Morris troupe, which played here the night before, were on the outboard train on their way to Pensacola, but none of them was hurt. Miss Morris' special car, containing herself and Mr. Harriet with Frank Goodwin, the manager, was attached to the train.

AN INORDINATE LOVE OF DRESS.

DETROIT, Jan. 2.—Mrs. Mary E. Cody, of Windsor, Ontario, step-daughter of Sol. White, member of Parliament for Essex County, Ontario, has been arrested, charged with forging her mother's name to an order on the First National Bank of this city, last October, for $2,500. President E. J. Smith, an intimate friend of the family, paid her the money. On Tuesday she presented another forged order which led to her arrest. An inordinate desire for clothes is supposed to have led her to commit the crime.

UNCLE SAM TO TRY GALLAGHER.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—The case against W. J. Gallagher, charged with forging the tally sheets of the second precinct of the Eighteenth Ward, after being twice postponed, has been dismissed by Commissioner Hyne, District Attorney Tuttle having filed information before Judge Blagden, thus putting the case in the United States Court without preliminary examination or indictment.
